Liza Golden

Liza started with Ginny when she was 17 years old. She was a US finalist in the Elite Model Look competition in Prague then began traveling, modeling in Asia, Australia, London and India.

She found immediate success in the Indian market where she quickly shot every major magazine, became the face of the prestigious Lakme cosmetics, and was featured in the iconic Kingfisher calendar.

Upon returning to New York, she scored the Armani Jeans Campaign and was signed by IMG Models.

Her first show season, she walked for Rag and Bone, Milly, Honor in New York, Dolce & Gabbana in Milan and Loewe in Paris to name a few.

Liza has also been featured in campaigns for GAP, editorials in Vogue Italia, V Magazine and Elle, the Free People catalog and Revlon.

Passionate about health and body image, Liza has embraced her natural physique and is now working as a Curve model.
